

CHILD PROTECTION AT NOTRE DAME HS

IT IS EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY TO PROTECT CHILDREN

All children have a right to grow up in a caring and safe environment. All adults have a responsibility to protect children, including:

Parents; Family members; Friends; Neighbours; Professionals; Members of the public; Community groups

What might make you concerned?

Most children grow up in homes where they are loved and well cared for however sometimes for a variety of reasons, a child may be abused or neglected. For more information please consult the child protection policy (a copy is available in the staff room).

What to do if you are concerned?

Children can always get help for themselves, they may need you to get help for them.

If you are concerned about a child attending Notre Dame High School, please speak to:

MISS A MUNRO Headteacher gw21munroanne@glow.sch.uk	MRS C SMITH, Acting DHT & CP Coordinator incls668@glow.sch.uk

Or by contacting the school office:

- in person
- Phone (01475 715150) [5150 internal phone]
- Email innotredame@glowscotland.onmicrosoft.com

Make sure you:

- Act promptly
- Note your concerns
- Give as much information as you can about the child and the family

If the child is in immediate danger you should contact the police.

You can also talk to: Social Work Services 01475 715365

Police Scotland 101; Scottish Children's Reporters Administration 0300 2001680

Glasgow & Partners Emergency Social Work Services 0300 343 1505