Term 2

Litearrachd

Literacy

- This term we are focusing on instructional writing and a writing a letter.
- We will continue to work on consistently using a capital letter, full stop and finger spaces, as well as ensuring our writing is neat with letters formed correctly.
- We are continuing to work on phonics across the class from initial sounds up to three letter blends.
- Questioning, and thinking about different types of questions, is a big focus across the curriculum this term. This will encourage pupils to think more deeply about different subjects.
