Apostrophes

Today we will learn how to use apostrophes correctly to show possession and ownership.

Look at these examples.

Amy's ballet shoes.

The bird's nest.

The young boy's lego.

The car's engine.

To show possession, we add an 's on to the owner.

The book belonging to the teacher - The teacher's book.

Activity One: Rewrite each sentence, placing the apostrophe in the correct place to show possession:

- 1) This is Musas hat.
- 2) Andy likes to sit behind the drivers side in the car.
- 3) The ladys car had broken down.
- 4) Petes dog has been missing for two weeks.

Activity Two: Rewrite these sentences so that they use a possessive apostrophe.

- 1) The car belonging to Manal.
- 2) The house belonging to Steve and Amy.
- 3) A new book belonging to Farhan.
- 4) The photos that belonged to Mary.

Activity Three: For each sentence below, rewrite the sentence so the possessive apostrophe is used correctly.

- 1) Steves' car had gone missing.
- 2) Sarah's borrowed Davids ball.
- 3) Anna went to visit Mik'es house last week.
- 4) Andrew's house is next' door to Freddie's.
- 5) Amys picture's are hung on the wall.

Metaphors

A metaphor is a figure of speech that is used to make a comparison between two things that aren't alike but do have something in common. Unlike a simile, where two things are compared using like or as, a metaphor's comparison is made by stating something is something else. A metaphor is very expressive; it is not meant to be taken literally. You may have to work a little to find the meaning in a metaphor.

Look at the these examples.

He was a lion in battle. The striker was a goal machine.	The moon was a misty shadow. Her tears were a river flowing down her cheeks.
Read the following metaphors. Think about the convey/show	ir meaning and explain what the writer is trying for example
She is a jack-in-the-box. The writer is trying to show	that the person is excitable and very active
He had shoulders of steel=
The mountain was a God =
The sun was a pool of gold =
His teeth were blades =
The stormy ocean was a raging bull =
Hi temper was a volcano. =

Think.... what do you prefer to read in a book, a simile or a metaphor? Explain your reason...

Self-reflection Plenary

At the end of a day of learning you might like to choose a row (A, B or C) and roll a die to select some self-reflection questions. You can look at them by yourself or, even better, discuss them with someone else.
