Who are the RRSA Steering Group?

The pupils that work in the RRSA are Ben, Joshua, Jess, Faith, Findlay, Melissa, Tyeisha and Sophie. The RRSA work together to make sure we are a Rights Respecting School.

We are supported by Teachers, Parents. And a Community Representative

Why are we focusing on RRSA?

- Pupils enjoy and feel safe at school.
- Pupils feel included and valued.
- Pupils improve their resilience and emotional wellbeing.

What is RRSA?

RRSA stands for Rights Respecting School Award.

We have been awarded our R.O.C meaning Record of commitment.

What we are aiming for?

The RRSA steering group are aiming for Level 1, Silver, to achieve this we need ;

- A whole School Charter
- Every class to update their charter
- Including P1-P4s on the Steering Group
- Pupils to know and talk about their rights.
- Mention Rights at Assembly.
- Use the UNICEF LAUNCHPAD to further explore rights.
