

Mr B Anderson
Janitor

I've previously had a long career in retail management, then worked as a Carers Support and Events Co-ordinator for a national carers organisation, spent 11 years as a Police Officer and now thoroughly enjoying my work as a School Janitor.

Working alongside so many positive and dedicated people and getting to spend some time with the wonderful children makes it the best job that I've had.