AUGUST 2024
UPDATE

Welcome Back To School!

We are delighted to welcome back our families and children to school as well as our new families after the summer break. It has been a busy first week back at Corsehill Primary School but everyone has settled well into their new classes with their new class teacher.

Our nursery is now open full year and from 8am - 6pm. Our new nursery team have welcomed all of our returning families this week as well as some new families to the nursery.

If you ever have any questions or queries, please do not hesitate to get in contact on 01294 552418.

What's Coming up in September?

This past week in Corsehill

- We have a brand new kitchen hatch for serving our school lunch
- Our new Area Inclusion Worker has commenced her role - Andrea Salmon. She will be out and about in the playground and will be arranging a meet and greet session in the coming weeks. Watch out for more information on this.
- Our new P1 children participated in their first whole school assembly this week.
- P7 have been supporting their new P1 buddies to settle into school and in the playground.
