

Orla and the Serpent's Curse by CJ Haslam

A funny and spooky story with convincing characters, witches (or pellers), a great local legend/curse, real tension, and a very good dog. I like the main character's name too

Recommended by Ms Gilmour, Largs Academy

Genre/type of book: adventure stories

Who would enjoy this story?

Aimed at upper primary/ secondary pupils

Additional notes:

If you enjoy stories with lots of action and excitement, find out more about the genre and get recommendations for books you'll enjoy from this page on the Your Next Great Read website

You'll find lots more books like this in the Action and Adventure section of the Campus Library