

Read the first chapter of The Song of Sky and Sand. Record your thoughts about each of the three questions in the spaces below.

The looking question is ...

In which country is this story set?

The clue question is ...

Why had the water pump been overused?

The thinking question is ...

Is it right that the children should have to travel so far to get water?

Do you have any questions? Write them here.