

Reading Activities

Read a book at home, either your home reader or a book of your choice from home or the library. When you have finished choose one activity to complete in your scrapbook, using the book title as your heading.

Fiction
Illustrator Draw a picture for your favourite part in the story.	Blurb Write a summary of the story for someone who hasn't read it yet.	Extra chapter Imagine you are the author and write an extra chapter for the end of the book.	Character convos Imagine you just met one of the book characters. Write down the conversation.
Comic Draw the events in the book as a comic.	Ask the Author Write down 5 questions you would ask the author if you met them.	Character Interview Pretend to interview one character. Write your questions and their answers.	Txt msgs Choose a conversation in the book and write it as text messages.
Dear Sir Write a letter to one of the characters.	Character Profile Draw a picture of one character and write down 5 things you know about them.	Map Draw a map showing the places in the story.	Into the Text Imagine you are a character in the book. Write what happens to you when you are there.
Non-Fiction
Information Report Write down the 5 most interesting facts in the book.	Diagram Draw a diagram of something from the book. Make sure you label the important parts or features.	Persuade Me Write a paragraph to convince me about your point of view on a topic, e.g. why we should eat healthy food.	Reporter Write down 5 important things that happened in the news this week.
Crossword Use information from your book to make a crossword with matching clues.	Tell a friend Find 3 people to share an interesting fact with. If they already knew it find another person.	Are you sure? Choose 3 facts from the book and check them e.g. using google. Write if they are true or false.	Glossary Write down 5 words that you hadn't heard before, along with their meanings.