

Adverbials of time and place

Discuss how the author uses adverbials of time and place to build cohesion across paragraphs and across the text as a whole (e.g. for three days; fitfully that night; immediately).

Ask children to look through the text identifying examples.

Introduce the PCM. Children write a review of one of the stories in the book, giving their thoughts about the characters, structure, events and conclusion.