Sound File Week

This week we are linking up with NorthAyrshire's 1+2 website so that you can really focus on pronunciation.

1. Click on the following link

<https://blogs.glowscotland.org.uk/na/primarylanguages/>

2. Go to the tab and scroll down to the relevant Primary class.

3. Click on Sound files with phonetic breakdown

4. To access the sound files, click on the loudspeaker, and press the arrow below it, to activate the sound.

P1-P5 Practise the relevant Greetings and Personal information sections

P6. Personal information and Food and Caf e

P7. Personal information and colours

FAMILY CHALLENGE

Create some amazing sock puppet characters and have Spanish conversations with your family.

Will it be a monster, animal or superhero? Use your imagination! Remember to post photos on our school Twitter page.

Extra challenge - Can you describe your puppet in Spanish.

Give your puppet a name, age, etc. eg. Mi marioneta se llama Ana. Vive en Madrid. Tiene ocho a os. Tiene los ojos azules y el pelo rubio.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that the official Spanish anthem is called 'La Marcha Real'? It is one of only 4 anthems in the world without lyrics. Have a listen to it!

Last week we asked what the island at the 'toe' of Italy's boot is called? The answer is Sicily.
