

Literacy at Home

Week 2
St Bridget's
Primary

Literacy Challenge

With an adult cook something tasty in the kitchen. Can you write a set of instructions or recipe for the thing that you've just made?

In your learning packs you will find a Literacy at Home grid with 48 activities to do at home. All these activities are free to do and have a literacy theme to them. This week focus on completing Tasks 1, 2, 3 and 4

#RAMPANTREADING

Remember to send a picture to the school Twitter page of you reading at home. Use the hashtag #rampantreading in your post.

Scots Word of the Week

"Keep the heid" meaning stay calm, don't get upset.
Try using it in a sentence.

The 3 Ps Technique

These three catchy words, Pause, Prompt Praise describe a simple technique that, used well, will support your child to practise his/her reading and to develop more reading confidence.

The principle of Pausing - then Prompting - and then Praising is very useful to remember and apply anytime your child is reading aloud to you. The 3Ps technique is best used when your child is reading and 'gets stuck' on words that they can't read or are new to them.

When your child encounters words that are difficult for them to read, the 3Ps technique will allow him/her the opportunity to have another go, self-correct, or if needed, find out (be told) what the problem word is.

Top Tip

Create a special reading place in your home, with your child's favourite books within reach.

Did You Know?

It is impossible for most people to lick their own elbow.

Joke of the Week

Q - What is a horse's favourite sport?

A - stable tennis

Author Spotlight

Jeff is a household name as he is the author of the Diary of a Wimpy Kid series . It has been made into two blockbuster films.

His first decent drawing was of a turtle at the age of 3.

His favourite sandwich is peanut butter and jam!
