

Reader of the Week

Ms Bell
English Department

What was your favourite childhood book and why?

Charlotte's Web by E.B White. My cousin (a trainee primary teacher) read it to me with lots of voices and excitement. I loved Charlotte and the qualities which made her a great friend to Wilbur.

What kind of books do you read now?

Childrens/Young Adult fiction, bestsellers, crime, romance, page-turners

Which 3 books do you think everyone should have read by the time they leave school?

The Book Thief by Marcus Zusak

The curious incident of the dog in the nighttime by Mark Haddon

Harry Potter and the philosopher's stone by J.K Rowling

Which fictional school would you like to work in or attend?

Hogwarts, for sure! Magic , all the way. #magic rules

Books or films?

Books first then film adaptation later. Sometimes I don't like how the producers or directors change things. Hated the big change in The boy in the striped pyjamas.

Books or kindles?

Books. Love the feel of a book, the smell and just physically turning the pages.

Fiction V Non Fiction?

Fiction but non fiction great to dip into. I loved Becoming by Michelle Obama
