

Reader of the Week

Niamh

What was your favourite childhood book and why?

Charlotte's Web written by E.B White is my favourite childhood book because it has so many amazing morals but is written for children.

What kind of books do you read now?

I read quite a lot of murder/mystery books and adventure from time to time. I love (auto)biographies and action packed books as well and would never say no to a romantic comedy.

Which 3 books do you think everyone should have read by the time they leave school?

Moriarty by Anthony Howowitz

Poems to live your life by Chris Riddell

Wonder by R.L Palacio

Which fictional school would you like to attend?

I would definitely attend Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardary because what an experience that would be!

Books or films?

For Harry Potter it's a 50/50 split as I absolutely love films, the movie magic, how the story is brought to life outside of the imagination but you just can't beat a good book to read before you go to bed

Books or kindles?

100% books. I love the feeling of the book in my hands, turning the soft, delicate pages and the sort of crunchy sounds it makes as I do so. Its familiar smell is unquestionably better than a kindle.

Name a book that made you laugh

The Diary of a Wimpy Kid series is a personal favourite for making me laugh and I have revisited them on several occasions