

Reader of the Week

Mr Harrison

What was your favourite childhood book and why?

I read lots of things, but anything by Roald Dahl would be top of the list. I loved 'The Witches'—1st horror book I ever read!

What kind of books do you read now?

A mixture of novels, graphic novels and non fiction about RE or Philosophy. Best book I have read in the last while would be 'The Book Thief' by Markus Zusak.

What would be the title of your autobiography and why?

'Avoiding Defenestration.'* It is my favourite word and I don't really fancy experiencing it.

Which fictional character would you have hated to spend lockdown with and why?

Dolores Umbridge. Passive aggressive, bigoted, vicious and just completely annoying.

Books or films?

Both. Read the book first though

Fiction V Non Fiction?

I enjoy reading about people's ideas and opinions in non fiction but the creation of new worlds in fiction is the best.
