

Reader of the Week

Helen

What was your favourite childhood book and why?

When I was 8 I started reading the Harry Potter series and I became obsessed . I loved it because the world was so compelling and it made me want to be a witch.

What kind of books do you read now?

I read a lot of fantasy or supernatural books. During lockdown I read a lot of classic novels.

Name 2 books do you think everyone should read.

I think everyone should read Wonder by RJ Palacio and To Kill A Mocking Bird by Harper Lee because they make you really think about the way you treat people.

Who is your favourite fictional hero and villain?

My favourite hero would be Percy Jackson and Luke Castellan would be the villain, both from the Percy Jackson series.

Can you name a book that you think would make a good tv series or a film?

There are so many books that I think would make great tv series or film but one I think has a lot of potential is the One of us is lying series by Karen McManus.
