West Kilbride Primary School Recruitment Drive

We need YOU!

Please explore the information within this booklet to discover opportunities to get involved in our school community! Research has shown that children have higher levels of attainment when their parents engage with their child's school and at West Kilbride we want to engage you with your child's school experiences as often as possible! Therefore, we will be holding a Recruitment Drive to see if any of our fabulous families can help fill any of our vacancies!

Why you should get involved!

Facts & Figures

- Between 75% and 85% of children's waking time is spent out-with school and parents are their first and main educator.
 - Children have higher levels of attainment when their parents engage with their child's school.
 - The Scottish Government promote Parental Engagement throughout your child's education – Pre-Birth to 18!
 - Student's motivation to learn is higher when their parents engage with the school and pass on a positive attitude about Education.
 - Engaging parents with their child's education leads to improved behaviour and school attendance.

Positions available:

Play Partners

We are looking for partners who want to embrace their inner child and pop in and experience our exciting play opportunities. Sound like fun? Come along!

Practice Pals

We need some pals who want to help us practise different parts of our learning. Would you like to pop in, play some games and help us practise our new skills?

Book Buddies

Learning to read is an exciting part of school and we love having a buddy to show off to! Could you pop in for a comfy seat and a story with us?

Break Buddies

We would love to offer an indoors alternative to our children who may enjoy a break from the playground environment. We are looking for helpers to play with toys, games and other fun activities with our children once each week.

Art Assistants

Some classes save some of their artistic activities for a Friday afternoon and would welcome anyone with (or without!) a creative flair, who would be willing to lend a hand.
