

Whitehirst Park Primary

P1 Transition

February 2020 - June 2020

What happens?

February/March 2020

- Staff will visit Nurseries with Parky the Whitehirst Park bear. Parky will share his photo book all about Whitehirst Park Primary and send a copy home for Parents to read too
- Parents will receive a letter outlining all induction activities

April/May 2020

- Staff will continue to visit Nurseries with Parky the Whitehirst Park bear
- The children are invited to attend Assembly and have a mock playtime
- P5 Buddies for each child will write to individual children introducing themselves
- The children are invited to school for three half hour play sessions where they will meet their 'big' buddy

June 2020

- Play sessions in school will continue
- We will write to parents informing them who the class teacher will be and which class the children will be in
- We will have a 'Move up' Afternoon where the children will be in their classrooms with their new classmates and teacher. Mrs Robertson (Head Teacher) and Miss Johnstone (Depute Head) will speak to the parents on both afternoons about school routines and curricular matters
- Children and parents are invited to school for a school lunch
- Children and parents are invited to our Sports Day at Kilwinning Sports Club

The school handbook can be accessed on the school website.
