

Design Analysis

Product List for consideration

The product you choose needs to have moving parts within it somewhere and also will be taken apart, therefore if you do not use a product selected which can be bought for under £5 in any superstore then it will need to be an old product you no longer use.

If you have any product in mind, other than those here then let me know.