

Room 10's Newsletter

LITERACY

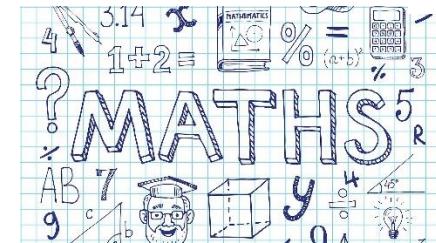

In writing, we are learning to write narratives, letters and reports.

We are using different strategies to spell words.

We are learning how to use our reading strategies.

We are really enjoying our class novel – A Kind of Spark by Elle McNicoll.

We are revising our times tables.

We are adding to our understanding of place value, and looking at decimal numbers, rounding and estimating.

We are using our understanding to calculate addition and subtraction sums.

@MrsAMcQuade

We have been exploring our Rights to build our Class Charter.

Through Emotion Works, we are learning how to describe different emotions that we might feel.

We are exploring peer pressure and building a toolkit to help us.

Our Outdoor P.E. takes place on a Thursday – please dress appropriately.