

Place Value Revision

L1: I can identify the value of digits and use my knowledge of place value to solve problems.

1. Write these numbers using digits:

Four hundred and seven thousand two hundred and twenty

2. The attendance at two Spanish football matches at the weekend were 45 340 and 27 876. What was the total attendance for both games?

3. Sam made 1256 minutes of calls last year. He was charged 4 pence per minute. What was his total phone bill for the year?

4. $104 \times 10 =$

5. $100 \times 10 =$

6. 95 500 divided by 10 =

7. 1430×1000

8. A car is on sale at the local garage for £14 561

Round this amount to the nearest:

£10 =

£100 =

£1000 =

