

Duma and the Lion

L.I. - I am learning to put sentences into the correct order.

Using your book, look for the sentences below and write them out in order, starting from the beginning to the end.

One day Duma and her mother were sitting under the trees by the river.

She went down to the river for a drink.

Just then a big lion came down to the river.

Two zebras were having a drink at the river.

The lion ran after her.

In Africa there was a beautiful river.

Duma ran as fast as she could but she could not catch up with her mother.
