

A message for all First Communicants.

Father Kevin posted the following message on Facebook.

This post is for the boys and girls of Sacred Heart Primary School who were due to make their First Holy Communion this weekend (9th May). Sadly, we won't be able to come together and celebrate your very special day with you and your family.

So I'm looking for the children to draw a coloured picture of the church or their families or a simple cross. Can you also make a special prayer for you and your family asking God to bless you. If you get an adult to email them to me at Frmcgoldrick106@gmail.com

I will then post them on Facebook.

And next weekend we will get the boys and girls from St. Gerard's primary to do the same.

I'm really looking forward to seeing all your pictures.

Take care and keep well. God bless. Fr Kevin Father Kevin has asked you all to create a special picture. You could draw yourself and your family on your special day, or a picture of the church, or even a simple cross, it is up to you. Remember to put your name on your picture, but only your first name, you could do it in bubble writing at the bottom of your picture.

Father Kevin has also asked you to make a special prayer. Miss Rattigan and Mrs Reilly are thinking of you all and keeping you in our prayers.

You'll clasp your hands then kneel and pray, on your First Communion day.

We ask you Jesus, to watch them grow, and teach them
all they need to know.

Protect them daily, from all things sad,
and fill their hearts with all things glad.

And if they ever lose their way,
please guide them back,
to kneel and pray.
