

My Superpower

At the beginning of the year, we read some of the story Matilda. In this story, Matilda has her own special powers that help her. She can use her eyes to move things around. I would like you to think about different superpowers and you are going to choose a superpower that you would love to have. In your narrative story I would like you to write about finding out you have a superpower and what you do with it. Do you use your superpower to help people? Do you use your superpower to do things you have always wanted to do? You can be as creative as you like! In your story, describe your superpower and what you do with it Write as much detail as you can. You could even use the internet to help you find out about some superheroes and their powers before you start writing to get some ideas. When you have written your stories, I would love to hear them. You could email them to me or email a picture of your story to me.

Remember my email address is gw16rattinganlisa@glow.sch.uk.

I hope you enjoy writing your stories!

The heading, learning intention and success criteria are just below.

My Superpower

L.I. - I am learning to write a narrative story using lots of detail.

Success Criteria

- I can write in paragraphs to separate parts of my story.
- I can use adjectives to describe my superpower.
- I can write in the past tense.
- I can remember my core targets (capital letters, full stops, etc)

