

Discovery Education

Discovery Education is a website we have access to with lots of great resources to help with your learning.

This week we are going to have a look at the short videos from around the world. You can choose what days to look at and answer the questions that is under make your world bigger quiz in glow.

I am doing it too as there is so much to learn about all the different countries throughout the world!

I hope you enjoy it as much as I am!
