There's a lot of research this week! For this reason, this is also your writing task! You do not need to write your newspaper article this week, only find out the information you will include in writing your report next week.

When we are writing, an important part is the planning. If we have a well written plan, it makes it much easier for us to write about it. So please remember, if you answer the questions, it will make it much easier to write our newspaper report next week.
