

Pick a window in your house that has the best view of the outside world. Then, have a seat beside it, get comfortable (a nice cup of tea, maybe an apple) and draw what you can see when you look outside. Try and spot as many small details as you can to add to your picture!

| | |
|--|--|
| | |
| | |