I can use question marks and exclamation marks

Look at these pictures and think about what is happening. Write an exciting sentence for each one using exclamation marks.

Look at these pictures and think about what is happening. Write questions for each one using question marks.

Now draw a picture – any picture – under your sentences and then ask an adult to write a question sentence and an exclamation mark sentence to match it. Read them to check if they used the question mark and exclamation mark correctly!
