

Second Level: Measure

We work out the volume of a shape by multiplying together the height, length and width of the shape.

Example: The volume of this shape would be calculated like this $2 \times 2 \times 2$. So the volume is 8cm^3

Work out the volume of these shapes.

