HOME LEARNING GRID- Week Beginning 18th January

Other	Our topic this term is the 1980s Can you write down 5 questions you have about the 1980s. Ask someone in your house or someone you know who lived throughout the 80s your questions and record your answers in your jotter.	Watch video on toys from the 80s https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Apapd Can you research and find 3 toys from the 80s that you would want and draw a picture of them.	Last week we learned all about Charles Rennie Mackintosh. Lots of you drew some beautiful Mackintosh roses. Charles Rennie Mackintosh also had his own special style of writing. Have a look at the picture in Class Materials. Using a ruler for the straight lines, can you write your name and a message to the class in Mackintosh writing? If you like, you could post a picture of your message to 'Chat and nonsense' on Teams so the class can see it. As an extra challenge, you could decorate your message with some Mackintosh roses.	Watch the PowerPoint show 'French Time - O'Clock and Half Past' Complete the worksheet of your choice. If you feel confident then do the o'clock and half past sheet (page 2). If not, just do the o'clock sheet (page 1).	Imagine you were going to sell one of the toys from the 80s. Design a poster to advertise this toy for kids to buy. Use persuasive language.
