Assessing a Drawing

	Sizing	Shading	Shaping	Line	Surface decoration/detail	Overall satisfaction
	How accurate is the size of the drawing compared to the original item/image or piece?	How smooth is the shading?	Is this is a similair shape to the original item/image or piece?	Is there quality of line? Are there thick and thin lines in the drawing?	How much detail is in the drawing?	How close to the original item/image or piece is the drawing?
Requiring	The size of drawing is either too small or too large in comparison to the original item/image or piece.	There is a limited amount of smooth shading in the drawing.	The shaping does not look similar to the original item/image or piece.	All the lines are of the same thickness. They are all fairly dark, heavy or very faint.	There is a limited amount of detail in this drawing.	The drawing is not very accurate and does not look very much like the orginal item/image or piece.
Developing	There are areas of the drawing that are of a similar size to the original item/image or piece.	There is some smooth shading in places of the drawing.	There are some similarities in the shaping of the drawing compared with the original item/image or piece.	There is some quality of line created with some use of thick and thin lines.	There is some detail in this drawing.	The drawing has some accuracy and looks like the orginal item/image or piece.
Secure	The size of the drawing is fairly accurate, in most areas of the drawing compared with the original item/image or piece.	The shading is smooth throughout most of the drawing.	The shaping of this drawing is a fairly accurate likeness to the original item/image or piece.	There is good quality of line used in most areas of the drawing.	There is good quality detail in this drawing.	The drawing is farily accurate and looks a lot like the orginal item/image or piece.
Mastering	The size of the drawing is very accurate in all areas, compared with the original item/image or piece.	The shading is very smooth in all areas of the drawing.	The shaping is a very accurate likeness to the orginial item/image or piece.	There is excellent quality of line used throughout the drawing.	This is a highly detailed drawing.	The drawing is extremely accurate and looks very like the orginial item/image or piece.