

DEVELOPING THE YOUNG WORKFORCE IN... RMPS Nat 4, Nat 5 and Higher

By choosing to study RMPS, you will learn about religious beliefs, non-religious viewpoints, and personal experience. By exploring how religion, morality and philosophy can help people find meaning and purpose in life, you will develop your understanding of human beliefs, values and behaviour.

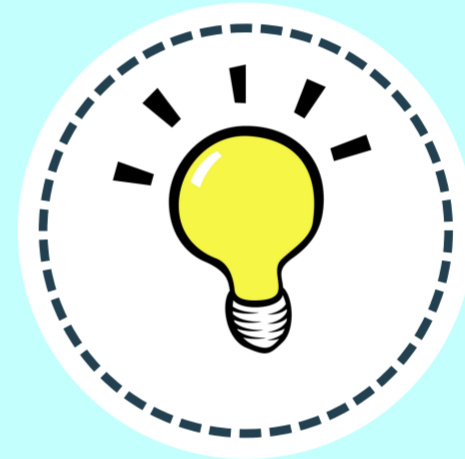

Literacy, Numeracy and Thinking Skills

Researching
Writing
Listening Presenting
Working with others

Synthesising
statistical data Analysing
statistical data and drawing conclusions

Critical thinking Evaluating Understanding
Analysing

Careers through RMPS

- Broadcast journalist
- Charity groups
- Civil Service
- Engineer
- Healthcare
- Human Resources
- Journalist
- Lawyer
- Market Researcher
- Media
- Politician
- Police Officer
- Public Relations
- Teacher

Famous people who did degrees linked to RMPS

RMPS isn't just for people who are religious. It links with many other subjects such as:

Anthropology
Criminology
Economics
International Relations
Law
Media
Philosophy
Sociology
Theology