

♪ SONG - The Donkey's Tale (CD tracks 2 + 18) ♪

Verse 1 (all sing)

I was dozing by the roadside with my master
when along came a traveller who offered a coin.
Then he led me by my rope wanted me to run faster,
and he said "Do you know Jesus?"

I said "No man, I'm just a donkey.
Slow man, I'm just a donkey.
Let me go man, I am old and grey.
I'm old and grey."

Verse 2

Then he led me to a man who climbed upon me,
whispered something in my ear and stroked my back.
He rode me nice and slowly all the way
until we came to crowds of people.

I said "No man, there's too much shouting.
Slow man, I don't like the shouting.
Let me go man, it's too much for me...
too much for me."

Verse 3

As we came into the town the crowds got bigger,
they were waving lots of leaves in front of me.
They were laughing, they were dancing. They were shouting,
"Hallelujah, it is Jesus!"

I said "No man, are you this Jesus.
WHOA man, are you this Jesus?
Oh man, I am proud to be Jesus' donkey."

I said "No man, are you this Jesus.
WHOA man, are you this Jesus?
Oh man, I am proud... to... be...
Jesus' donkey, Jesus' donkey, Jesus' donkey."
