

...we must leave that story I'm afraid, because as I speak news is coming in about dramatic events in Jerusalem. You may remember that Jesus of Nazareth was greeted by huge crowds in the city yesterday. It seems he is now involved in a violent disturbance in the Temple at Jerusalem. We are going straight over to Catherine, our religious affairs correspondent. What can you tell us, Catherine ?

Catherine [speaking with microphone, towards camera, as before - etc.]

John, Jesus of Nazareth is here as I speak, ordering people to leave the temple. He is not happy about the trade and business that appears to go on at this religious site. He has already destroyed several tables and stalls, shouting "This is my father's house"... You may be able to hear what is going on in the background...

♪ SONG - Get Out of this Temple ! (CD tracks 4 + 20) ♪

Verse 1 (all sing - as if Jesus)

Get out of this temple! (punching the air with clenched fists)

This, my father's temple!

Thieves and merchants, go away,
come back when you need to pray.

Tell this to your people.

You don't worship this sacred floor,
you lend money to wreck the poor.
So I implore you - 'leave this temple' !

Verse 2

Get out of this temple! (with fists)

This, my father's temple!

Thieves and merchants, go away,
come back when you need to pray.

Tell this to your people.

Pray forgiveness for what you've done.
Take your profits, your goods and run.
I speak to you as God's living son!

Verse 3

Get out of this temple! (with fists)

This, my father's temple!

Thieves and merchants, go away,
come back when you need to pray.

Tell this to your people. (with fists)
