

For the time being, at least, there have been no further disturbances involving Jesus of Nazareth or his followers. Earlier, however, I did receive an unconfirmed report that Jesus and his disciples are preparing to eat somewhere in the city. Back to you in the studio, John.

John

Thank you James, we'll come back to you at the end of the programme.

♪ SONG - Who Baked the Bread ? (CD tracks 6 + 22) ♪

Verse 1 (all sing)

Who baked the bread and who poured the wine? [clap]
Who grilled the fish and sliced all the limes? [clap]
Who cooked the sauces, who baked the rolls? [clap]
Who laid the table, who supplied the bowls? [clap, then whistle]
Did those cooks or servants, followers or friends,
know that Jesus planned this meal
to symbolise his end?

Verse 2

Peter and John were sent off ahead. [clap]
"Go to the city" Jesus had said. [clap]
"You'll find a water carrier to meet, [clap] he'll lead you to the place where we will eat" [clap, then whistle]
Did those cooks or servants, followers or friends,
know that Jesus planned this meal
to symbolise his end?

Verse 3

Peter and John said "Where is the room? [clap]
Jesus has sent us, he'll be here soon." [clap]
Helpers were there preparing the feast, [clap] laid out before them lots of things to eat. [clap, then whistle]
Did those cooks or servants, followers or friends,
know that Jesus planned this meal
to symbolise his end?

Verse 4

Who baked the bread and who poured the wine? [clap]
Who grilled the fish and sliced all the limes? [clap]
Who cooked the sauces, who baked the rolls? [clap]
Who laid the table, who supplied the bowls? [clap, then whistle]
Did those cooks or servants, followers or friends,
know that Jesus planned this meal
to symbolise his end? (shouted) HEY!