Dear Parent/Carer,

February has arrived already and what a busy month it is going to be here at Condorrat Primary!

Fèis na Nigheanan/Girls Festival.

Twenty-one P5 girls are going along to this event at Broadwood on the 1st of February, where they will take part in football, netball, rugby and dance activities.

Eadar Ghluasad Clas 7/P7 Transition Events.

A group of P7 pupils will be taking part in the Maths Challenge at Greenfaulds on the 7th of February. All P7 pupils completed a block of STEM lesson in January, with two sessions taking place in the Science Dept. at Greenfaulds. I am delighted to say that the staff at Greenfaulds were hugely impressed with the effort, attitude and behaviour of our pupils - well done!

Cluaidh Anns A Chlas/Clyde in the Classroom.

Our two P6 classes are looking after brown trout eggs in their hatchery at the moment, checking the water temperatures very carefully daily. They are thoroughly enjoying this experience and are taking their responsibilities very seriously. Once the eggs are hatched the children will release the trout into the Luggie. Watch twitter for updates!

Duais John Muir/John Muir Award.

Pupils in P6 & P7 are visiting Palacerigg on the 31st of January as part of the John Muir Award. They will be following some of the trails to see conservation in action and talking to staff in the 'Watch us Grow' area.

Seachdain na Gàidhlig/World Gaelic Week.

International Gaelic week runs from 19th to 25th February this year. Please keep an eye on the school 'X' account to see what the classes and the nursery will be doing that week. Information about other Gaelic events in NLC and elsewhere have also been shared with families through Groupcall and can be found on their social media pages.

Fèis Dhràma Ghlaschu 2024/Glasgow Gaelic Drama Festival 2024

We are delighted to be hosting this event in the school on Thursday 29th February. 8 other GME schools will be visiting our school to showcase their Gaelic plays and P2G class will represent our school. Further information on this event will be shared with P2G parents as soon as possible.
