

Measurement

Terms	Illustrations	Definitions
Area		The amount of surface space an object covers, measured using non-standard and standard units. Area is usually measured in square units e.g. square centimetres (cm²), square metres (m²) etc.
Area of a circle	$A = \pi r^2$  The circumference is the distance around the outside edge of circle. The radius of a circle is the distance from the centre to the circumference.	Area = $\pi \times r^2$ r = radius, d = diameter
Area of a parallelogram	Area = base x height 	Area = $b \times h$ b = base h = vertical height