

You are Scotland's Young Workforce

In Social Studies you will learn and develop the skills you will need when you leave school and enter the 'World of Work'

What employers are looking for?

- * Positive attitude
- * Confidence
- * Communication skills
- * Willingness to learn
- * Ability to work with others
- * Honesty
- * Reliability
- * Creativity

In Social Studies we help you develop all of these skills

Communication

I am improving my communication skills in reading, writing and speaking out in class.

Creativity

I am using my creative skills to develop new ideas and present them using a range of different media.

Collaboration

I am working with others in class on different projects and in cross curricular activities

Confidence

My confidence is growing through participating in discussions, presenting my ideas and participating in a range of class and whole school events.
