

Meet the Support Staff

Claire Wright

A little about me. My name is Miss Wright. I am an ASNA here at Gartcosh Primary school and enjoy working and supporting the amazing children, I enjoy working alongside the teachers and I am currently studying to become a counsellor too. I am very much looking forward to the year ahead and love being part of such a kind and welcoming school. I enjoy cooking, baking cakes and have a cat called Sherlock who's named after the great famous detective.

What is important to me outside of school? I enjoy spending time with my family and friends, cooking, baking delicious cakes, love the cinema and enjoying my studies and love a good cup of tea.

What's Important to me in school..

What's important to me is being part of a kind school and showing good manners, being helpful with the teachers and respecting one another. I like to see happiness and sharing and understanding each other. I very much enjoy our mindful moments in school and taking that time to centre ourselves and breathe in and out and working at our best.

What my day may look like..

I help support the children with their numeracy and literacy, I am out in the playground to keep everyone safe. I may help the teachers with their own work and wall displays, I can help the children during lunch time and to support the children and community of Gartcosh primary School.

What I would like children to understand about those who need a little help in school.

I would like the children to be accepting and understanding that sometimes some children just need that little bit of extra help and to show kindness. I like a quote from the book Wonder that Primary 7 just completed it says, "When given the choice between being right and kind, choose kind"
