Rights Week

October 8th-12th

SDGs

- The UN has decided that each person in the world should be doing their bit to try and tackle issues facing society.
- They produced a set of targets that they hope to meet by 2030.
- The name that has been given to the targets that the world has set are the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGS)
- Our rights week this year is going to be focused around the SDGs.

Recycling

- SDGs 11, 13 and 14
- This week we are starting our recycling campaign in this school.
- You will see 2 bins sitting in the canteen/social area just next to the water fountain as you come in from the school yard (where there is currently a space). These bins will be clearly labelled.
- One of these bins is for plastic bottles only the other is for cans only.
- Can you please do your bit for the environment and use these bins.

Plastics

- SDGs 11, 13 and 14
- From this week we will be 500 ml selling reusable water bottles to reduce the amount of plastics we have
- These can be ordered from Monday from Mr Scoular in F032– these cost £2
- Not only will you save the environment, you will save yourself a fortune!
- You can choose what colour the top of your bottle is

Day of the girl
Thursday 11th
of October

- SDG 5 - Gender Equality

- Female Football

- At lunchtime either outside/games hall (dependent on the weather) some female pupils will be taken on female staff at a game of football.

- S3/4 QT Event

- We are hosting our own Question Time event periods 3 and 4 in the assembly hall. This is for all S3 and S4 girls to attend. We will be discussing issues that females face in society. On the panel we have:

- Julie Hepburn, Human Rights Campaigner (previously with Amnesty International)

- Vivienne MacLaren, Chair of the Scottish Womens Football Association

- Alex Crawford, our Girls Captain

- Katy Hackshaw, a member NLCs LGBT group

Day of the girl

- You will also experience some lesson starters on the this day.
- All lesson starters will be surrounding issues that woman face around the world.
- Lesson starters have been made by our rights ambassadors.
- Period 1, Period 3 and Period 5.

Inspirational woman

- We are looking for you to think about an inspirational woman that has had an impact on you.
- Look for a female that has protected your or other children's rights and/or has done something to promote the SDGS.
- It could be someone famous. It could be a well known female that has campaigned for rights. It could be someone in your family.
- Bring in a picture of this person. You have up until Thursday 11th October to drop this picture in – F033 (Miss Paterson)
- You will see all these female role models posted around the school to celebrate the international day of the girl!
