FOREWORD

Once again I have the pleasure to introduce the Yearbook. This year's edition lives up to the high standards set in the previous years.

As usual the Yearbook provides a reference for pupils and staff to look back on many years from now. I know it will provide many hours of pleasure for the children and even the grandchildren of the current pupils. As fashion changes over the years it will also, I am sure, provide a source of amusement.

This year's committee have worked very hard and have come up with some new ways of raising money to support the production of the Yearbook. I congratulate them on the high quality of the product. I also thank the advertisers and sponsors.

GREASE LIGHTNING

Following the amazing success of the 1994 school production, "Joseph", the decision was made to once again allow the teachers and pupils of Kilsyth Academy to display their wide range of acting and singing skills in the riveting West End musical that is . . . "Grease".

Apart from a broken projector, a few bumps and bruises, (in particular for Mrs. Gilmour!) and some dodgy American accents, everything was alright on the night!

Four nights of highly entertaining action were performed with the lead roles being played by Susan Mulholland, Jill Stevenson and Iain Harrison. This year the staff finally agreed to pull on their "glad-rags" and strut their funky stuff on stage, with Miss Irvine pretending to be a teacher (a challenging role) and Mr. Summers playing a big fairy (not much acting there then)!

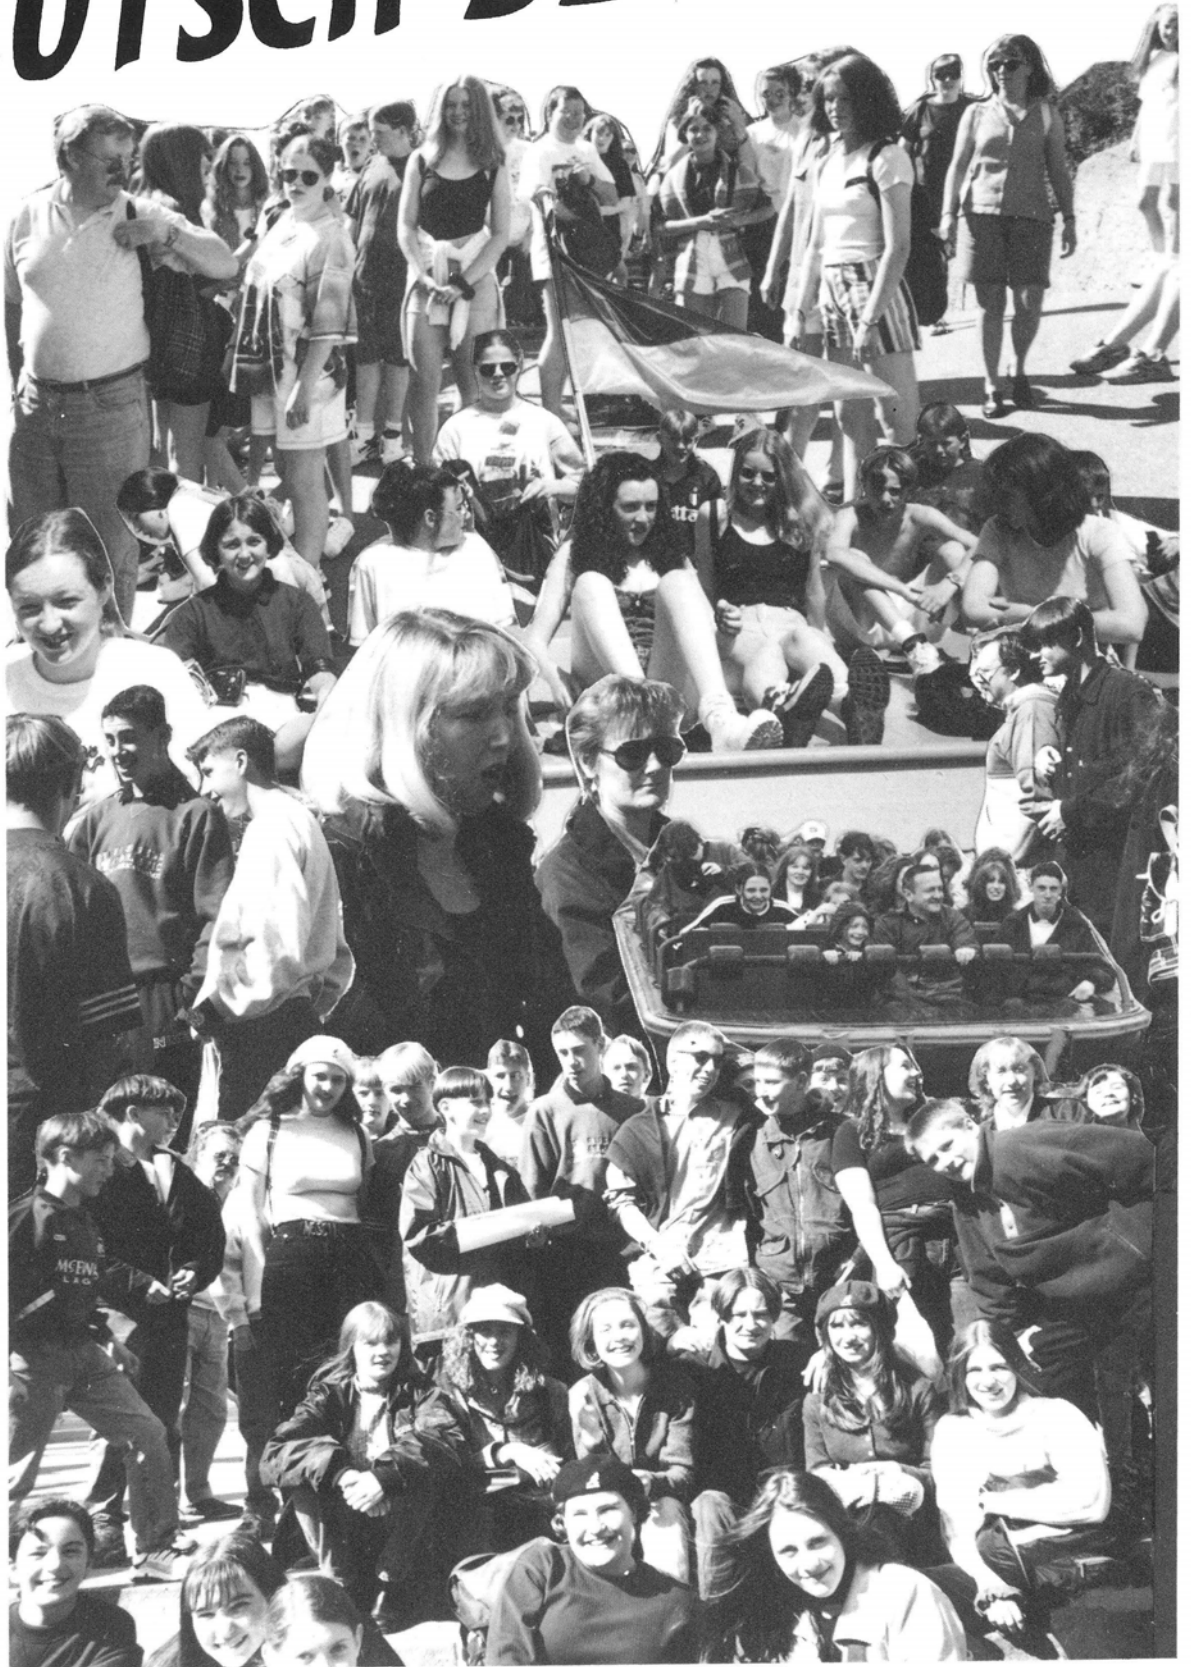

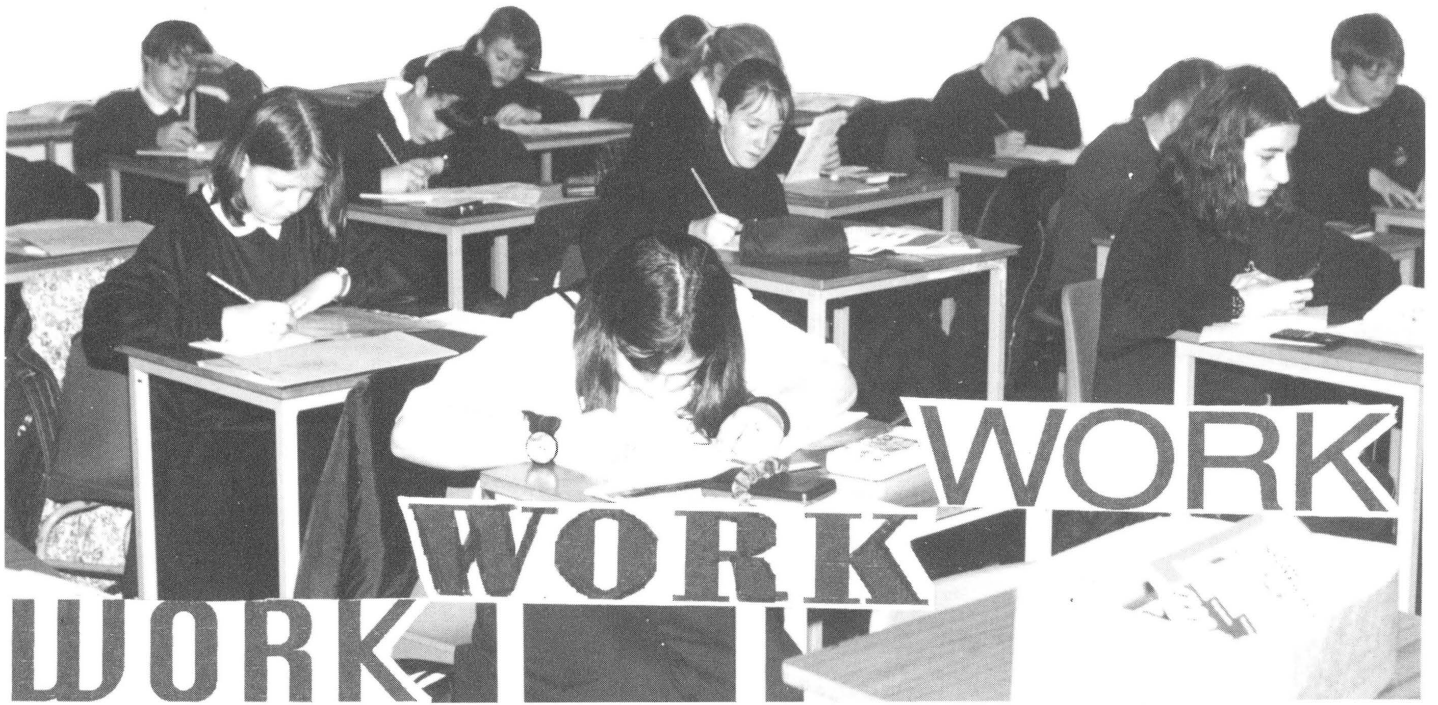

THE STAFF WE'LL ALL REMEMBER

THIRD ROW: Mrs Shepherd, Mrs Glinka, Mrs Smith, Mrs Gleeson, Mrs Raftery, Mr Robertson, Mrs McDonald, Mr Tolmie, Mr Friar, Mr R Taylor, Miss Robertson, Mr Conley, Mr Denovan, Mr McCloskey, Mr Laird. FOURTH ROW: Mrs Peddie, Mrs Semple, Mr Morris, Mr Lawrie, Mr Downes, Mr McGhee, Mr Chesney, Mr I Taylor, Mr Bryder, Mr Fyfe, Mr Knight, Mr Simpson, Mr Stirling, Mr Currie. FIFTH ROW: Mr Macfarlane, Mr Scott, Mr Lewis, Mr Macniven, Mr Dougan. Staff unable to be present included: Mrs Angus, Miss Dick, Mr Duncan, Miss Irvine, Miss Kane, Miss M Smith, Miss Wood.

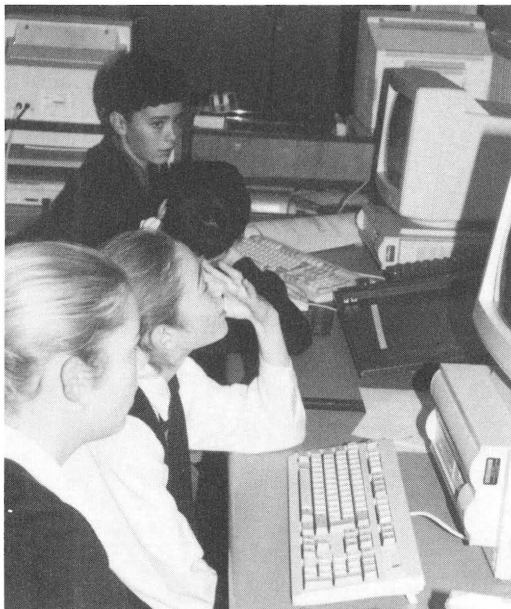

FRENCH FANCIES & DEUTSCH DELIGHTS

During the Easter break, Mrs Shepherd led a group of second and third year pupils to Quend-Plage, in the north of France. After a wonderful holiday - with a trip to Paris included - they made their way back to the dreary world of Kilsyth. Everyone agreed the holiday was great and wished they were back in the continental sunshine!!! So it wasn't long until another brave group of pupils took off to get burnt in the German countryside, at the start of one of the hottest summers on record. They spent a week in Boppard, on the Rhine, with glorious weather and wonderful food, before waving goodbye to set off on the long journey home . . .

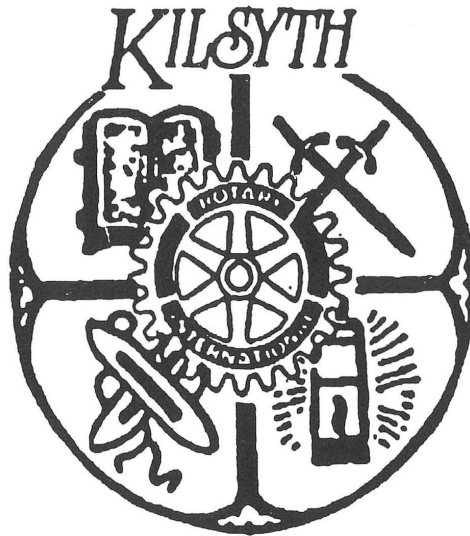

Sixth Year studying . . .
so that's why we now have supervised study.

CEILIDH

On the 16th of June the Fifth and Sixth Years descended upon the Coachman Hotel for the "Final Fling" of the school year. After a delicious three course meal and speeches from the Rector and School Captain Nicola Ferguson, everyone hit the dance floor to the energetic tunes of Craigenroan. With spirited dances such as the Dashing White Sergeant and the Flying Scotsman, all the excess weight was soon burned off. Further entertainment was provided by two highland "gentlemen" (alias Mr. Dougan and Mr. Robertson) on the trail of some sheep for the night.

95

But we'd better not mention Mrs. Cumming's advances on various male pupils . . .

Or Miss Irvine's delight at James Kane's striptease . . .

Or Stuart McDonald's inability to hold one free glass of wine . . .

Or Mr. Denovan's two left feet and terrible jokes . . .

Or Mrs. Espie's attempts to find out what was under Andrew Maginnis' kilt . . .

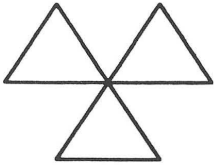

Well maybe it wasn't such good clean fun after all!

For the third year running, sixth year pupils attended the "Challenge of Industry Day", where local business men and women were given the chance to help give pupils an insight into the world of industry. Both days, one held in June and one held in January, were immensely enjoyed by everyone who took part, even if we were sick of the sight of "Jot Pads" and "Crazy Hats"!!!

Andrew demonstrating just one of his many fascinating talents.

Karen finds herself quite confused after Iain asks the question, "What is the meaning of life?"

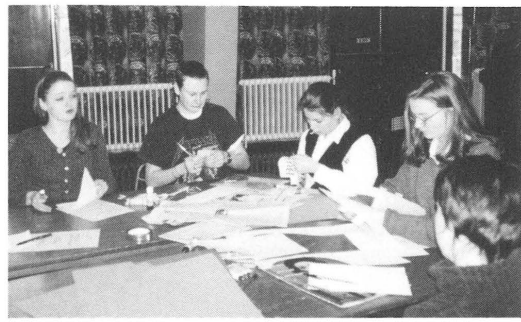

And now it's over to Lynsey . . .

Stuart showing off the winning "built in beard hat."

The management really don't have a clue . . .

Someone ought to tell them that auditions for "INCOGNITO" were held in November!

"Could we go through that one more time please?"

HALLOWEEN

The end of October came and it was time to pull on our witches' masks and hop on our broomsticks to the S1-2 and S3-6 Halloween Discos, where a good time was had by all, even although there were no ghosts or ghouls. Never mind - plenty of people, plenty of music and plenty of FUN.

THE BIG SPLASH

The swimming gala made "A BIG SPLASH" this November when senior pupils took to the water to compete for the coveted Kilsyth Academy Championship to end all championships. On the day Alastair Davidson and Linda Jordan turned out to be the two most likely to be related to a fish! (and not just because of their looks!) In the girls event . . . 1st - Linda Jordan, 2nd - Susan Molloy. In the boys event . . . 1st - Alastair Davidson, 2nd - James Kane. Overall house results . . . MELTDOWN

The music can't be that bad, surely?

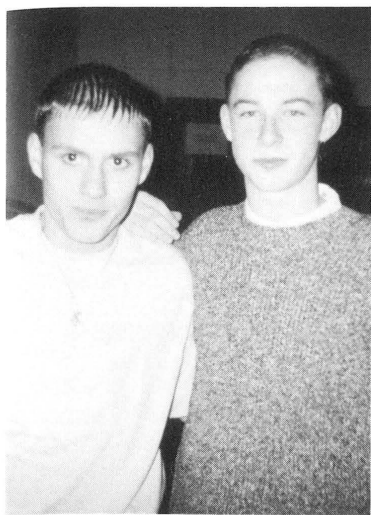

Bet you can't do this move . . .

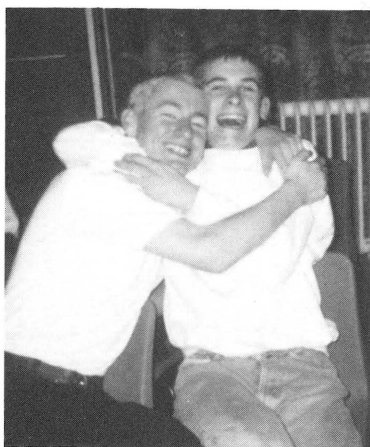

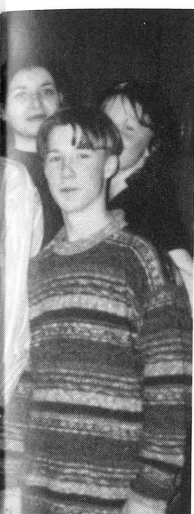

Nobody told us how good Mr Mitchell is at the Gay Gordons!

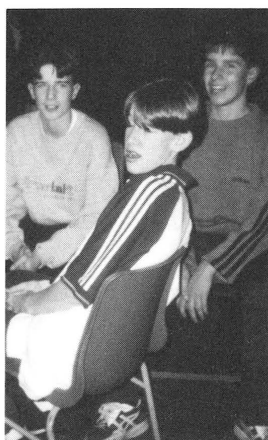

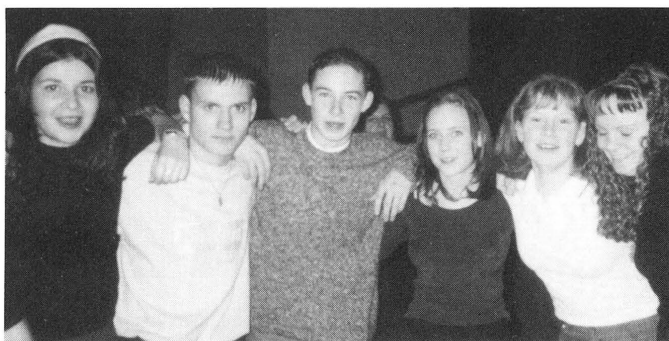

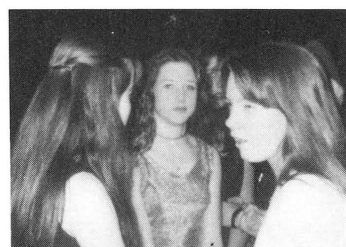

Let's play musical statues . . .

Who said that love has to be boring, eh?

Everyone had a "holly jolly" time at this years S1/2 and S3/4 Christmas Discos. Social dancing galore mixed with the favourite pop tunes of the moment were the ingredients for two excellent nights of non-stop dancing, even if it did take a bit of will-power to listen to Mr Dougan's wonderful "Scottish Music" not to mention watching his even more wonderful dance moves. Where would we be without individuality?
