starring ...

Mrs Caldwell
Head Teacher

Welcome to the 2008 Kilsyth Academy Yearbook!

Each year, the challenge of creating the Yearbook becomes greater and greater for the seniors in the production team. They are tasked to include everyone in the school and cover every major event - and present it all in a way that is different from any previous publication! The main ingredients of a successful Yearbook recipe may seem fairly obvious to many of you but the task of following those key instructions, to end up with an imaginative, colourful and unique end product, is undoubtedly enormously difficult.

It is clear that the members of this year's team have certainly risen to the challenge! I am sure you will be impressed as you pour over the pages that follow.

Be prepared to enjoy a feast of memories, watch out for that embarrassing moment the camera has captured and smile broadly as you remember the many happy times we have shared throughout another busy session.

Well done!

Yes ... these nutters run our school!

Footie Stars!

The team has performed very well all season. Training is on Monday lunchtime every week and has proved a success given the results on the pitch. The team started their Scottish Cup campaign along with 162 other teams in August and worked hard to reach the last 16 before being defeated by Williamwood High School.

At the time of printing this book, they were sitting in 2nd place in the league and Jordan Cooper was the top scorer with 14 goals.

KILSYTH ACADEMY'S

On Halloween the costume designers and make-up artists were working overtime. Kilsyth Academy's new first years were in for a treat - or was it a trick? - when the seniors and a large number of staff made it their mission to scare them. As terrified as they were, they seemed to enjoy themselves all the same, as the looks on their faces show!

THE SHAWSHANK REDEMPTION

Thirteen pupils and 3 members of staff attended the Columba 1400 Community and International Leadership Centre in Skye where they all successfully completed the Ambassador's Leadership Academy - the main purpose of which is to release the leadership potential of young people through outdoor pursuits, workshops, group work and discussion.

Since their return to school life, the group has continued to develop their leadership skills through presentations in and out of school, fundraising, extra-curricular activities and Primary school liaison. A mini-Academy is planned for June 2008 at Auchengillan Centre where our graduates will have the opportunity to share their skills and experiences with both staff and pupils.

Loch Eil 2007

It was August '07, when a group of 24 unsuspecting Kilsyth Academy Prefects headed north to the isolated Loch Eil Outward Bound Centre. The group faced their fears with a stream of action-packed activities, which brought them closer together - but why was the infamous Jacobs Ladder so dreaded? And why did Mr MacRae flee the boys' dorm so quickly? Such secrets may never be revealed...

All the gang together!

Yeah, it was freezing!

All hail John McLean!

Tally's Blood

At the beginning of the year a budding director decided to take a risk at something new. Emma Henderson had the idea of creating a performance of the Scottish play 'Tallys Blood' by Ann Marie di Mambro. The play proved to be a huge success and was enjoyed by all.

'Piping in the Haggis'

In January '08 the senior school and staff of Kilsyth Academy came together to celebrate the birthday of one of Scotland's finest - poet Rabbin Burns. The dinner was followed by an evening of entertainment, poems and speeches including The Immortal Memory by Mr MacRae, Toast to the Lassies by Jonathan Small, Reply to the Laddies by Emma Henderson and the Selkirk Grace by Christopher Mellon. The atmosphere was fantastic and the Burns Supper was one of the best yet!

This year's Valentines' Disco was as a huge success with everyone taking part and enjoying themselves - love was certainly in the air. This year the yearbook team decided to hold an Easter disco in order to raise money for the yearbook. It also just so happened to be the last ever disco for the 6th year and we intended to go out with a bang. Kilsyth Academy's greatest sporting success yet!

Kirsty is the Scottish Schools X-Country Champion, three times British Triathlon Champion and took 1st place in the European Triathlon Youth Relay.

She also came 3rd in the European Junior Triathlon, 2nd in the European Duathlon (with concussion!) and 7th in the World Championships.

To top it all, this year she took part in the 2008 relay and carried the Olympic Torch. We are sure we'll see her in London in 2012!

Kilsyth Academy once again set off to Italy for their annual assault on Val di Fiemme. The skis, snowboards, sleeping bags and, of course, petrol money were packed onto the bus, but most important of all the Connect 4 competition got underway - a ritual for the 30 hour bus journey.

The slopes looked challenging, Bellamonte with its long runs and Pampeago full of difficult turns. It was up to the school's elite skiers to show the locals what they were made of! Mr Dougan deserves a special mention for managing to spill coffee over himself and blame it on other staff - this act rightly earned him the very prestigious award - "Donkey of the Day". The evenings consisted of karaoke, daft team games, the 'not so popular' homework night and, of course, the essential card games of 'Morning Jack' and 'Chase the Ace.' Stuart Burns outshone the group with his astonishing karaoke 'skills'.

Overall, the sky was blue, the snow was powder-like and the fun was flowing, making Italy 2008 unquestionably a trip to remember.

At the annual awards ceremony, Julie Kavanagh won the most prestigious award - Jean-Claude Killy - for being the overall best skier.

HOLLYWOOD

The English department went all out again this year for the annual World Book Day celebration. The staff in the department dressed up as characters from Roald Dahl books and organised a day of mystery and excitement for S1 pupils.

Events unfolded in a CSI style investigation aimed at figuring out ...

Fire Reach Course

Four Kilsyth Academy pupils had the opportunity to take part in this week long course alongside pupils from other North Lanarkshire schools. They participated in a number of different activities, such as the smoke chamber, the crawling gallery and hose drills. On the final day they were given a tour of the Fire Station before putting on a display for their parents and teachers.

The pupils involved were Ellyss Conroy, Lisa Bathgate, Liam Butler and David Scott.

Unfortunately we have no photographs of Liam and David but they were lucky enough to be featured on Reporting Scotland!

THE INCREDIBLES

Lensheads Graduates

Morgen McKenzie, Victoria Hudson

Laurie McNab, Emma Henderson

Lensheads was a fantastic course teaching the ins and outs of film making. The four girls were taught to use professional cameras and sound equipment and as an outcome they wrote, shot and edited their own short film, which was premiered at the BBC Screening Room.

Hey guys, I can't believe the Yearbook is actually finished - this year has seemed a bit endless and yet that deadline came just too quickly! I don't think the word 'stress' quite cuts it - between keeping things together and the slowest computers you could ever imagine! But hey, you can't take things too seriously - in the end it was nothing a slice of Chippy Mahal pizza, Irn Bru and a Freddo couldn't fix. I owe a massive thanks to the Yearbook team who have put so much effort into what you've just read, and I think we all thank John for going for 6 pizzas every Wednesday (even in the peeing rain!) Looking back, I think every editor in the history of KA has finished their note on a 'good luck next year's team - you'll need it', but to be honest it's not about luck - if you put in the work you won't need it. Just have fun! Anyway, we've crammed some of our amazing memories of the year into this Yearbook, and I hope you've been reminded of some of yours too.
