

KILSPYH ACADEMY

YEARBOOK

2014 - 2015

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the 2015 edition of the Kilsyth Academy yearbook. Every year, we eagerly anticipate the publication of the yearbook and I am sure that this year's edition will not disappoint. Everyone enjoys having their short and long-term memories triggered by the colourful photographs and humorous anecdotes that a yearbook inevitably provides. I hope you will enjoy turning the pages and smile as you remember the many happy times we have shared throughout another busy session and, of course, the embarrassing images where that camera caught some of us unawares!

The 2015 yearbook has clearly maintained the tradition of excellence that we have come to expect in Kilsyth Academy and my thanks and congratulations go to our production team for all their efforts.

Read and enjoy!

INTERHOUSE SPORTS

NETBALL

In mid March, teams from each house competed in the annual inter-house netball tournament. After a long day of hardcore netball playing, Dumbreck took the title with Antonine in second place, Colzium in third and Balmalloch taking last place.

Dumbreck House Captain Rebecca Frew with her winning netball team and the infamous interhouse netball trophy.

FOOTBALL

On the same day as the netball a football tournament commenced on the ash pitch outside. Lasting three periods, the tournament left all players in questionable physical state. Eventually, Antonine was named champions followed closely by Balmalloch, Colzium and Dumbreck last.

A competitive match of seniors taking place out on the ash pitch on a cold Monday morning.

STAFF VS. PUPILS

VOLLEYBALL

VS

An intense battle between staff and pupils took place when both teams took to the volleyball court for a Staff vs. Pupil match. Unfortunately, the staff saw victory and won 50-37 leaving the pupil team distraught in their defeat.

POLITICAL DEBATE

On the 6th February Kilsyth Academy's S5 and S6 pupils welcomed, Jamie Hepburn MSP (SNP), Megan Gallacher (Conservative Party), Patrick Harvie MSP (Green Party) and Gregg McClymont MP (Labour party) to a political Question Time debate. Gavin, the School captain, chaired the debate. It started off with each politician quickly outlining their

Labour

Conservatives

Parties' aims. Then Gavin started to ask questions on behalf of the seniors. It was a very fun and interesting event that gave insight into what each party was like. I am sure everyone will agree that it was a great debate, and we would like to thank the four politicians for taking the time to visit us. Also a great big thank you to Mrs Wilson for making the debate happen.

DISCO INFERNO

It is the summer of 1967. Outside the weather is as hot as the fashion and Jack is about to celebrate a 21st birthday he'll never forget. Working late in a London club 'Disco Inferno', Jack meets Lady Marmalade - The Devils right hand lady. Dreaming of becoming successful, he makes a Faustian pact with her, trading his soul to fulfil his wildest fantasies. Sound like an ideal bargain? Think again. He becomes an instant and international success. However, the success proves hollow. Jack has fame and fortune but is losing his girlfriend Jane. If only he could turn back time and make one more trade, trading all he has for something far more important.

Mr Neilson

1966-2014

In October 2014, Kilsyth Academy was shocked and deeply saddened by the loss of Mr Neilson.

Mr Neilson was funny and charming and brought great inspiration to many of the pupils, and teachers of Kilsyth Academy.

We asked some of the teachers to give a comment on how Mr Neilson affecting them during their time at Kilsyth Academy.

He will be missed by many.

"Mr Neilson - The man: The myth"

Miss Gough

"Missing the fun and the laughter—
Never forgotten"

Miss Tierney

"He always made me smile"

Mr Turnbull

"The team is not the same without
you. We miss your joy and ridiculous ideas."

Ms McKillop

"The missing star in our sky."

Miss Irvine

Well, that is the Yearbook finally finished: deadline after deadline, extension after extension and the class becoming smaller and smaller. It is finally finished and now all five of the final Yearbook Team can finally relax. It was looking extremely likely that for the first time in so many years Kilsyth Academy would have no Yearbook but with hard work, determination and meal deals to get us through June, we eventually managed to get that Yearbook we worked so hard to achieve! Hope you all enjoyed looking through all the memories from the past year as much as we loved cramming as much as we could into our limited number of pages. Good luck to the next Yearbook team!

Special thanks to Robert Jones – if it wasn't for him, you wouldn't be looking at and reading this Yearbook. He managed to make our basic pages into a fabulous collection of KA memories.
