12. Can you find out who the staff are that you will be able to go to if you need some support, help or guidance when you start or at any point in the year?

My Personal Profile

Create a personal profile all about you. Fill in as much detail and information as you can to give your high school teachers a clear picture of who you are. This will let them know who you are, what you are like as a person and as a learner. The more teachers know about you, the more they can help you and help you learn!

L.I: To create a personal profile.

Success Criteria:

- Include personal details and information.
- Share who I am as a person and learner.
- Understand how the information may help myself and others.
