

Digital Difference

Aim: I can design a digital product of the future.

Digital technology makes such a difference in our everyday lives. Design a digital product that is not already on the market. Include labels to explain how the product works and any important features.

A large, empty rectangular box intended for drawing and labeling a digital product design.