Head Teacher's Message May 2020

Dear boys and girls,

I wanted to write you a letter to introduce myself. My name is Mr Murray and I will be your Head Teacher at Noble Primary School. I am really looking forward to you starting with us for Primary 1 in August. One of our Primary 6 children designed a special welcome card for you, I really love the colours and the message and I hope you do too. Inside your envelope, you will also find one of our special attachment hearts. Read over the message with a grown up. We want everyone to feel safe and secure at our school.

I know that you will be very excited to start school. We can't wait to meet you! All of my staff will be working hard to make sure you have a successful transition from nursery. To share information, I have set up a Twitter page for your parent to follow. Follow us @P1Noble. I would also like to ask your parent a favour. Could he/she email me their email address at ht@noble.n-lanark.sch.uk This means I can keep them up to date with any news from the school. Thank you and I hope to see you very soon.

Stay safe,

Mr Murray
Head Teacher
