THE COUGAR (18)

Thriller starring Tom Ferry and Gina Wright. A Govan-based detective heads to LA to extradite a suspected fraudster. All does not go to plan, however, and he soon becomes a hunted man in a strange country with only the beautiful, but dangerous, Jess as an ally. This is sure to be one of the most popular releases of the year and pre-booking is advised if you want to see it early. stat

First part of the Denny Heighton trilogy sees the hero, bodyguard 'Biff' Pow (played by Steve King), assigned to the World Chess Championships in Sweden's capital city. This chequered thriller has all the right moves as Pow becomes the pawn in an evil plan. Also stars

Gemma Bishop, Jackie Knight, Kiera Castle. You won't be bored with this one!

MY DAY, MY TIME (12A)

A simple, old-fashioned tear-jerker as Director Laurie Driver does a great job bringing Troy Wakeman and Jennifer Cox together. A serious accident threatens the life of Kallanish Lewis and she plunges closer and closer to the abyss - until Mattie Hair enters her life and introduces her to the world of music, unlocking a hidden talent.

Somebody had to do it! This film investigates and tries to explain the tragic happenings at Tallahassee Bridge over 40 years ago. This Oscar-winning movie is brilliantly directed, has great cinematography, fantastic soundtrack and the biggest stars. Unmissable with a fantastic and unexpected take on the story of Billy Joe. ~~Pass the biscuits, please!~~

THE TALLAHASSEE BRIDGE (PG)

THE BLUE ROSE (U)

Seeds for the first-ever truly blue rose have been stolen and the efforts to retrieve them are the basis of the best family film of the year. The zany Loff Inglesson and a galaxy of stars add their voices to this lt wonderful animation. 5

Received 4 NADA nominations. run c

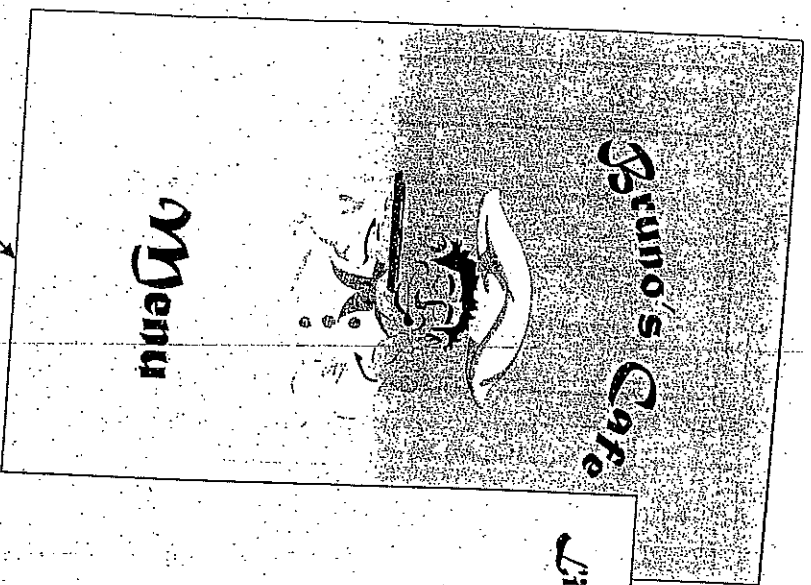

This

The low-budget, domestic hit of the year concentrates on the trials and tribulations of two 15-year-olds in Central Scotland as they try to cope with growing up, parents AND exams all at the same time. This hilarious movie will see you squirm with embarrassment, howl with laughter, scream with delight and cry tears of sorrow.
