

Random Act of Kindness Story Writing Activity

A random act of kindness is doing something that can help or cheer up another person, for no other reason than to make that person feel happier.

At the weekend, Kara decided to carry out a random act of kindness. What did she do? How did it make the other person feel?

Write in full sentences using:

- spaces between words;
- capital letters;
- full stops.

Random Act of Kindness Story Writing Activity

A random act of kindness is doing something that can help or cheer up another person, for no other reason than to make that person feel happier.

At the weekend, Kara decided to carry out a random act of kindness. What did she do? How did it make the other person feel?

Make sure you include:

- capital letters and full stops;
- conjunctions (and, but, because).

Random Act of Kindness Story Writing Activity

A random act of kindness is doing something that can help or cheer up another person, for no other reason than to make that person feel happier.

At the weekend, Kara decided to carry out a random act of kindness. What did she do? How did she feel afterwards? How did the other person react?

Try to:

- include adjectives and adverbs;
- use some conjunctions (and, or, but, that, if, because);
- start your sentences in different ways;
- use a range of punctuation, including capital letters, full stops, exclamation marks, question marks and commas in a list.