

Setting Description

L.I: To create a character description.

S.C:

- Include a variety of adjectives to describe the character's appearance.
- Use interesting adjectives to describe the character's personality.
- Explain who the character is and their background.

For this week's writing task write a description of your favourite character from a book, film or TV show (make sure your character is appropriate for school). Choose a character you know a lot about and that you feel you would be able to write a detailed description about.

- Complete the table. Add in as many adjectives you can to describe the character's appearance and personality, try to include interesting and more complex words to engage the reader. Think about their size, shape, hair and eye colour, strength, clothing, skin colour etc. Think about how they behave, how they act and treat people.

Appearance

Personality

Take some notes about the character's background, who they are, family and friends, what is their role within the book, film, TV series, likes and dislikes.

Background

- Write your description of your character including a variety of adjectives to describe their appearance and their personality make sure your vocabulary is interesting and the reader is able to build a clear picture of them in their minds. In the introduction explain who the character is and a little bit of background about who they are.

- After you have finished your writing, read over what you have read making any changes you may need to. Then using the success criteria, assess what you have written. 2 things you have done well and 1 thing that you think you can improve on next time- just same way as you would in school. Use the comments below to help you.
