

Curricular Area	Homework for Primary 6 May 2021
Literacy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Use your common words to write six sentences</li> <li>- Spend ten minutes on IDL spelling programme (IDLS Group)</li> <li>- Spend ten minutes reading to an adult. Choose a book or magazine of your choice or log into Get Epic.</li> <li>- Write out your common words in chalk outdoors (if you don't have a piece ask Miss Martin)</li> <li>- Ask your family to join you in a debate. Think of a topic that has a good argument for and against</li> <li>- Write a report on Bees following our Bee Bombs on Earth day</li> <li>- Depending on your reading book, do research on cats, whales or bears and list ten facts</li> </ul>
Maths	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Spend 10-15 mins on Sumdog or IDL Numeracy</li> <li>- Use Topmarks website to play maths games linked to what you are learning in class</li> <li>- Practise all of your tables</li> <li>- Get squared paper from school and draw a picture with TWO lines of symmetry</li> <li>- Go on an angle hunt. List all the places you see right, acute or obtuse angles in your home or local area</li> <li>- Find a dice from a game. Roll it 30 times and write down how often each number comes up in a tally table. Make a bar graph to show your results</li> </ul>
Cross Curricular	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Take pictures and notes for your Pope Francis Faith Award Book</li> <li>- Go online and find out about one of the main parties in our Election: SNP, Conservatives, Labour, Green Party, Alba. Which party do you like best? Give three reasons for your answer</li> <li>- Go outside with a notebook. Write down all the changes you see in the world in Spring and Summer time. How does nature change?</li> <li>- Make a poster for World Earth Day which encourages people to love and protect our planet</li> <li>- Create an exercise programme for yourself. Write down at least three times per week that you will exercise. What will you do? Where? Which day/time?</li> <li>- Plan a family meal and ask everyone to come together to eat it. Help your family prepare the food and enjoy time together, finding out about each other's day</li> </ul>